

Leader Training Opportunities

Leaders feel more comfortable and have more fun when they are trained. The Boy Scouts of America and the Samoset Council offer Scouting volunteers a wide variety of training courses. To be considered trained there are required courses that must be completed, all of which are available online at www.my.scouting.org. In addition to the required courses there are a variety of supplemental and advanced courses available to help provide the best possible Cub Scout program.

Advanced Training

BALOO - Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation ♦ April 22, 2017 ♦ Weston

This one day course is designed as an introduction to the Cub Scout outdoor program for those leaders who are interested in adding a camping component to their pack activities. Completion of this course is mandatory for at least one adult on a pack over-nighter.

OWL - Outdoor Webelos Leader Skills ♦ May 19-20, 2017 ♦ Weston

This course is designed to help Webelos leaders enhance the outdoor program for the Webelos in their den by teaching basic outdoor skills including the skills needed to complete many of the Webelos adventures.

University of Scouting ♦ March 18, 2017 ♦ Wausau

The University of Scouting is a supplemental training opportunity for all adult Scout leaders. Whether you are new to the program or a veteran of many years, the University provides interesting courses in a wide variety of topics, from pack administration to planning an outdoor program.
